CONCORDANTIA TRACTATUUM EX TRADITIONE HOLLANDRINI

bearbeitet von Ruth Konstanciak

Die folgenden Tabellen stellen gleich oder ähnlich lautende Textstellen der einzelnen Texte der Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini synoptisch zusammen. Die Editionen der Traktate TH I – TH XXVI, LZ und Sz erfassen in den Similienapparaten nur Quellen, aus denen die Traditio Hollandrini geschöpft hat¹, nicht aber Textbezüge und Ähnlichkeiten innerhalb der Hollandrinus-Tradition, deren Nachweis die Apparate zu sehr belastet hätte. Für den Benutzer erschließen sich Beziehungen und Ähnlichkeiten, Parallelentwicklungen und Gemeinsamkeiten, welche erst rechtfertigen, von einer „Traditio Hollandrini“ zu sprechen, auch wenn aus Platzgründen lediglich diejenigen Sätze in den Tabellen aufscheinen, die wirklich eine Konkordanz in der Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini aufweisen. Die dazwischenliegenden, nicht konkordierenden Passagen sind in den Tabellen nicht dargestellt.

Zum Vergleich herangezogen wurden Stellen, die mit Hilfe der Datenbank des LmL gewonnen werden konnten. Sie werden mit den jeweiligen Kapitel- und Satznummern angeführt.

Als konkordant wurden Sätze in die Tabellen aufgenommen, die inhaltlich und in der Wortwahl identisch oder die ähnlich formuliert sind bzw. geringfügig voneinander abweichen, zum Beispiel durch einen Wechsel des Modus, die Verwendung von Synonymen oder von Partizipien statt einer finiten Verbform oder durch kleinere glossenartige Erweiterungen:

TH II 3,28: Item nota, quod omnis mutacio desinens in ut re mi semper fit ascendendo; ratio est, quia cantus plus habet ascendere quam descendere ex ordine illarum vocum.

TH XIV 8,25: Item nota quod omnis mutacio, que fit in ut, re vel mi fit ascendendo, quia cantus habet plus ascendere quam descendere ex ordine illarum vocum.

TH I 1, 5, 21: Quarum quedam dicuntur signate, quedam non signate.

TH V 2, 75: Item predictarum clavium quedam dicuntur signate, quedam non signate.

TH V 1, 11-12: Alie vero septem, scilicet a-b-c-d-e-f-g, sunt latine, per quod datur intelligi quod ipsa musica a Latinis est translata et ab eisdem regulariter est consumata.

TH XX 1, 3: Sed cum alie 7 littere sint latine, innuitur quod musica a latinis translata est et ab eis regulariter consumata.

TH II 3, 61: Et fit sex modis secundum sex voces, scilicet ut re mi fa sol la; quelibet enim istarum vocum resumptarum aliquociens in spacio vel in linea dicitur unisonus.

TH III 5, 21: Et habet fieri sex modis secundum quod sex sunt voces, scilicet ut re mi fa sol la; et quelibet illarum vocum resumpta in linea vel in spacio dicitur unisonus.

Satzzahlen von Versen werden in den Tabellen grau unterlegt. Diese Merkverse sind in allen Traktaten, auch unabhängig von erläuternden Prosapassagen, überliefert und erklären die weite Verbreitung der Lehre.

In eckigen Klammern vermerkte Stellen weisen Sätze aus, die inhaltlich voneinander abweichen, nur entfernt ähnlich oder lediglich bruchstückhaft zitiert sind oder die sich durch weitere (bzw. fehlende) Satzteile voneinander unterscheiden:

TH I 1, 5, 22: Signate sunt, que ad notificandum cantum in libris scribuntur, et harum quedam communiter signantur, ut ·F· grave et ·c· acutum, quedam vero ut ·T· grecum fundamentale rarius et ·g· superacutum, quedam vero rarissime ut ·d· excellens.

TH II 1, 55: De numero autem signatarum que<dam> communiter signantur, ut ·F· finale et ·c· acutum; ·T· vero grecum raro signatur; ·g· acutum rarius; ·dd· excellens rarissime.

Satzzahlen von Glossen oder Einschüben, die in den Editionen im Kleindruck erscheinen, werden kursiv dargestellt.

Auf Übereinstimmungen der Choralincipits und Mustermelodien der Psalmodie in den Tonaren einiger Traktate wird nicht verwiesen; diese sind im Index cantuum² erfaßt.

Die meisten Tabellen lagen bereits in Versionen vor, die die jeweiligen Bearbeiter der Editionen vorbereitet hatten. Für diese umfangreichen Vorarbeiten möchte ich den Autoren herzlich danken – ebenso dem Herausgeber Michael Bernhard für beständige Hilfe bei vielerlei Fragen und für die Aufbereitung für den Druck.

INDEX CANTUUM

EINLEITUNG

Im folgenden Index Cantuum werden sämtliche, in den Traktaten der Traditio Hollandrini vorkommenden liturgischen Gesänge aufgelistet. Der Gesamtbestand der Meß- und Offiziumsgesänge ist nach Gattungen aufgeteilt in alphabetischer Reihenfolge geordnet. Die proportionale Verteilung der einzelnen liturgischen Gattungen innerhalb des Bestandes entspricht der Präferenz der Tonare für die verschiedenen Gattungen, die ja den reichsten Fundort der zitierten Gesänge bilden. Die zahlenmäßig größte Gruppe bilden naturgemäß die Offiziumsantiphonen, danach folgen die Responsorien des Offiziums und die Introitus der Messe. In etwas bescheidener Zahl kommen Gradualien, Alleluia-Verse und Communionen vor, Hymnen, Tractus, Offertorien, Sequenzen und Ordinariums-Gesänge sind dagegen nur sporadisch vertreten. Selbständige Gruppen bilden Psalmen und Cantica. Die Saeculorum amen-Formeln sind von Calvin M. Bower in Band VII der Traditio Iobannis Hollandrini S. 207-248 zusammengestellt.

Die Eintragung der Gesänge folgt folgendem Schema:

Das Textincipit werden in den Indices in normalisierter Orthographie des klassischen Latein angegeben.

Die Texte der Traditio Iobannis Hollandrini (TH) werden nur mit den römischen Zahlen (für TRAD. Holl. I - TRAD. Holl. XXVI), sowie den Buchstabenkürzeln LZ (für LAD. ZALK.) und Sz (für SZYDLOV.) zitiert. Der Tonarius Vratislaviensis (TON. Vratisl.) wird mit TV abgekürzt.

Kursive Verweise beziehen sich auf Textincipits, die in den Traktaten ohne Melodie zitiert werden.

Die Modusangabe (T) kann unter Umständen zwei Zahlen enthalten, wenn der entsprechende Gesang in den Traktaten verschiedenen Modi zugewiesen wird. P steht für den tonus peregrinus.

Die Abkürzungen für den liturgischen Ort des entsprechenden Gesangs sind auf S. 516 aufgelistet.

Der Grundbestand der Offiziumsgesänge wurde mit den entsprechenden Nummern des Corpus Antiphonalium Officii (CAO) versehen, die Meßgesänge mit den Nummern des Antiphonale missarum sextuplex (AMS).

Die Kolumne Quellen verweist als Referenzquellen auf Choralhandschriften und moderne kritische Ausgaben und Repertorien mit Gesängen der jeweiligen Gattung. Bei den Antiphonen und Responsorien werden als grundlegende Referenzquellen die Nummern der beiden zur Verfügung stehenden Gesamtausgaben (MMA V, bzw. RR) angegeben. Bei den Hymnen und Sequenzen wurde auf die Analecta Hymnica (AH) sowie die Ausgabe von Rajeczky, bei den Alleluia-Gesängen auf Schlagers Katalog verwiesen. Die Ordinarius-Gesänge sind mit den Nummern der klassischen Melodienkataloge von Landwehr-Melnicki, Bosse, Thannabaur und Schildbach versehen, ergänzt durch die Angaben der zentral-europäischen Überlieferung, die im Katalog von Kiss zugänglich sind.

Direkte Verweise auf mittelalterliche Choralhandschriften geben wir in jenen Fällen, bei denen der jeweilige Gesang oder seine in den Traktaten der TH angeführte melodische Variante in keiner der benutzten Ausgaben und Repertorien enthalten ist, oder die aus verschiedenen Gründen Aufmerksamkeit verdienen. Diese Besonderheiten werden zudem in Kommentaren erläutert. Wenn ein Kommentar zur Edition bereits vorhanden ist, wird darauf verwiesen.

Der Index erfüllt somit zwei Funktionen: Einerseits bietet er eine Übersicht über das zentraleuropäische Choralrepertoire, das sozusagen als praktisches Reservoir im Hintergrund der behandelten spätmittelalterlichen Lehrtradition steht, andererseits versucht er, Licht auf das komplexe, sich gegenseitig erklärende aber auch einander widersprechende Verhältnis zwischen theoretischem Denken und mitteleuropäischer regionaler Gesangspraxis zu werfen.

Domine
	Die Antiphon Cognoscimus Domine (oder Cognovimus Domine , wie im Antiphonar aus Istanbul, siehe CANTUS) gehört zu den seltenen spätmittelalterlichen, im mitteleuropäischen Raum auftauchenden Antiphonen, die zum Bestand der sog. „antiphonae super populum“ der Fastenzeit gehören. Die Melodie in TH XXIII stimmt mit jener der böhmischen Handschriften überein.

Die Antiphon - eine vermutlich spätmittelalterliche regionale Komposition - wird fast ausschließlich in zentraleuropäischen Quellen in zwei modalen Deutungen überliefert: die meisten notieren sie im 6. (oder transponierten 6.) Modus, andere, wie z. B. Handschriften aus Esztergom aber im 8. Modus (vgl. MMMA V 8525).

	V 4, 357 IX 2, 4, 161 XXIV 17, 113				Pr2 f. 78r
	In TH II und IX mit dem Text Cum factus esset annorum duodecim , in TH XXIV Cum esset Iesus annorum duodecim . Der Text lautet richtig: Cum factus esset Iesus annorum duodecim .
Cum inducerent	III 11, 22 XX 3, 60 XXIV 17, 44	1	BMV Purif	2011	MMMA V 1481 Krij I f. 173v
	In TH XX ist der Abschnitt eius accepit eum angegeben. Vgl. den Kommentar in Traditio Iobannis Hollandrini Bd. II, S. 397 und Bd. V, S. 416. In TH III handelt es sich um die seltene Variante der Antiphon im 3. Modus, was allerdings nur die Schlußformel betrifft: statt der üblichen Kadenz des 1. Modus gf ga fe d d schließt die Melodie mit gf ga gf e e und wird demzufolge dem 3. Modus zugewiesen (vgl. Krij I f. 173v)

	In TH V wird das Incipit Martha soror angegeben. Da eine Antiphon mit diesem Beginn nicht ermittelt werden konnte, ist es anzunehmen, daß es sich um die Antiphon Intravit Ihesus in quoddam castellum handelt, die mit dem Text Martha soror fortfährt.

	TH V app. III 80 gibt das Textincipit Magnificavit Dominus an. Obwohl es eine Antiphon Magnificavit eum in conspectu im 7. Es gibt mehrere Antiphonen mit diesem Textbeginn, darunter zwei im 3. Modus, die jedoch textlich anders fortgesetzt werden (Salva nos Domine / Salva nos Christe , CAO-Nummer 4686). Da in LZ das Incipit Salva nos Domine angegeben wird, ist es wahrscheinlich, daß auch in den anderen Traktaten diese Antiphon gemeint ist. Es handelt es sich um eine spätmittelalterliche Komposition, die in den CAO-Handschriften nicht enthalten ist.

Es handelt sich um ein im zentraleuropäischen Gebiet seltenes Invitorium der Adventszeit, das jedoch in mehreren Diözesanhandschriften aus Krakau vorkommt.
Venite exsultemus Domino	XI 6, 78	7	D per annum	1180	MMMA V 7193
Laut TH XI sollte die Melodie mit e beginnen. In den untersuchten Choralhandschriften beginnt das Invitorium jedoch mit G .

RESPNSORIEN

Das Incipit gibt die Anfangsworte des Responsoriums an, wie es entweder in der Handschrift selbst erwähnt wird, oder aber von uns ermittelt wurde (in diesem Fall in eckigen Klammern). Ein kursiv gedrucktes Incipit gibt in einigen Fällen den Text an, der tatsächlich in der Handschrift erscheint. Dabei kann es sich um eine beliebige Textpartie des Responsum oder des Versus handeln.

Es handelt sich um eine modellhafte Versusmelodie des 1. Modus, die mit mehreren Responsorien verbunden sein kann. Da von den Traktaten der TH lediglich das Versusincipit angegeben wird, ist es nicht sicher, um welches Responsorium es sich handelt. Möglicherweise ist kein bestimmter Responsoriusversus gemeint und der Text Ave Maria lediglich zur Darstellung klassischer Versusmelodien verwendet wurde.

Die Antiphon kommt in zwei unterschiedlichen Transpositionen vor: die überwiegende Zahl der mitteleuropäischen (deutschen, böhmischen etc.) Quellen hält sich an die westfränkische Tradition und setzt die Antiphon auf c . In der ungarischen Überlieferung wird sie dagegen konsequent auf g transponiert, wie es auch in LZ der Fall ist.

INDEX SCRIPTORUM

bearbeitet von Michael Bernhard

Der folgende Index stellt alle Angaben zu Quellen und Textparallelen aus den Editionsbänden zusammen. Verweise auf Handschriften, die ungedruckte Texte enthalten, sind dabei nicht berücksichtigt. Bei Textausgaben, die nur nach einer Kapitel- oder Seitenzählung zitiert werden, können sich die unter einer Kapitel- oder Seitennummer aufgeführten Textstellen der Tractatus Iohannis Hollandrini auf unterschiedliche Sätze beziehen. In diesen Fällen sollten immer die Editionen konsultiert werden.

Für die Traktate Anonymus Pannain, Lambertus und Hieronymus de Moravia, die in den Editionen noch nach den alten Ausgaben zitiert sind, wurden Verweise auf neue Editionen in eckigen Klammern ergänzt.

Bei der Zusammenstellung der Verweise hat Barbara Dietlinger dankenswerterweise mitgewirkt.

ADDENDA ET CORRIGENDA

bearbeitet von Elżbieta Witkowska-Zaremba

Im Laufe der Arbeiten an den Editionen der Traktate blieb es nicht aus, daß neue Erkenntnisse zu den Texten und ihren Quellen gewonnen werden konnten, die es ermöglichten, Datierungen und Provenienzen einzelner Texte zu präzisieren oder zu korrigieren, weitere Textkonkordanzen festzustellen und Emendationen an den Editionen vorzunehmen. Diese Korrekturen und Ergänzungen resultieren aus dem speziellen Projektcharakter der Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini, die in gewisser Weise als ein „work in progress“ anzusehen ist. Im Juni 2016 kamen die letzten Quellenfunde ans Licht, die im Supplementum vorgestellt werden.

Wir danken den Editoren, die ihre Editionen durchgesehen haben und uns ihre Korrekturen zukommen ließen. Hinweise von Zsuzsa Czagány, Ágnes Papp and Calvin Bower zu den musikalischen Beispielen waren für uns besonders hilfreich.

478	comm.	adde: 9, 93 In summo medice] The grammatically persuasive reading ‘Pro pilio medici’ (gen. sing.) is transmitted in Ln 1 (TH XIX, 89), also in Ks and En (TH XXIV 5, 9), and finally in Salzburg, St. Peter Cod. a. VI. 44, fol. 31r (‘In summo medici’). The other reading ‘medice’ (voc. sing.) – apparently incorrect – is transmitted in Pa , and is confirmed in the oldest known transmission of VERS. Palmam I, 23 (ms. R: ‘Pro pileo medice recipis -ce-solfaut apte’); this version is likewise received in ms. B (transmitting VERS. Palmam II, 29), and in IOH. FLOESS 7. HUGO SPECHTSH. 39 clearly understood ‘medice’ as vocative when he wrote the paraphrase: ‘Pilleus, o medice, tibi sit c-sol-fa-ut apte.’ Nevertheless the ‘medice’ transmitted as remnant of the oldest version in mss. Pa (TH VIII) and Pb (TH X C 183) seems to be inconsistent with the remaining text contained in the verse.

ZWICKAU, RATSSCHULBIBLIOTHEK MS. 24.10.26

Noch immer ist Zufall im Spiel, wenn unerwartet Quellen neu ans Licht treten, so auch bei dem Text, der hier kurz anzuzeigen ist. Auf eine ganz beiläufige Frage in anderem Zusammenhang gab Christian Meyer den Hinweis, vielleicht sei das erst jüngst bekanntgewordene Konvolut Ms. 24.10.26 aus der Ratsschulbibliothek in Zwickau¹ hilfreich.

Dieser Sammelband nun erwies sich als ein in seiner Form seltenes wie überraschend reichhaltiges Zeugnis für die Lehre der Ars musica an sächsischen Lateinschulen und Leipziger Universität um 1506 bis 1517.

Der letzte seiner 13 handschriftlich eingetragenen musiktheoretischen Texte jedenfalls ist ein Traktat (fol. 293r-310r), der in klarer Beziehung zur Traditio Jobannis Hollandrini steht, denn er erwähnt diesen Autor zweimal namentlich: Zunächst beim Benennen der Fingerglieder für die Guidonische Hand (ähnlich wie in TH II 1, 4 und LZ 1, 33):

fol. 294r: Notandum 3^o, quod secundum Ioannem Holendrinum quilibet digitorum 4^{or} habet loca clavibus obsessa, quorum primus et infimus dicitur radix, 2^{us} ascendendo venter appellatur, 3^{cus} immediate sequens sursum procedendo collum nominatur, 4^{us} vero et supremus scilicet unguine (?) caput aut vertex nominatur.

Sodann beim Zitat der Verse zur Wichtigkeit der Tonarten-Kenntnis (ähnlich wie in TH II pr. 19-22, TH V pr. 103-106 und LZ 4, 18-20):

fol. 298v: Quorum cognicio adeo necessaria est, ut absque ea non cantus arte et scientie inlum<in>ari possunt, nec quisque sine tonorum noticia se musicum fateri audet. Unde Ioannis Holendrinus dicit:

Musicus octo tonos ignorans non reputatur.

Ergo scias tantum, ut a<r>te tonus inveniatur.

Beide Merkmale gehören zu den *loci Hollandrini*².

² Vgl. Band I, dort geführt unter 3B (S. 39-40) und 1C (S. 30).

Doch auch *loci auxiliares*³ kommen vor, beispielsweise die Kennzeichnung der manus musica als „cantuum vocumque musicalium directa clavigera demonstratrix“ (fol. 293r; locus auxiliaris 3a), die Bezeichnung „claves signate“ (fol. 295r; locus auxiliaris 2c) und die Verwendung des Begriffs „saltus“ in der Beschreibung der Intervalle (fol. 303r; locus auxiliaris 4a).

Schließlich fügt sich die Anlage des Traktates ins Bild der Hollandrinus-Tradition: Nach einer (knappen) Erläuterung des Titels Tractatus presens musices est plane seu coralis folgen Capitulum primum est de manu musica (beides auf fol. 293r), Capitulum 2^m de clavibus (fol. 294v) und Capitulum 3^m est de tonis (fol. 298v). Zwar unterblieb eine weitere Kapitel-Numerierung, auch findet sich der Stoff für die Mutation auf die Kapitel 2 und 3 verteilt. Aber wie in Hollandrinus-Texten üblich, wird die Intervall-Lehre, De modis musicalibus (fol. 303r), einbezogen. Andererseits fällt auf, daß die Lehre von den Coniunctae in diesem Text fehlt, doch an anderer Stelle, im Zusammenhang eines sachlich mit der Hollandrinus-Tradition verwandten Traktates (ab fol. 265v) und von derselben Hand, berücksichtigt ist als Capitulum ultimum de coniunctis (fol. 273v-274v).

Eine Untersuchung der offenbar für den privaten Studiengebrauch gesammelten Texte wird bestrebt sein, deren Status genauer zu klären.

BRNO, ARCHIV MĚSTA BRNA SIGN. 114/123

Die Brünner Handschrift, deren musiktheoretischer Teil bisher noch nicht untersucht wurde, ist in zweierlei Hinsicht bedeutsam: sie ist einerseits der früheste Zeuge für die Rezeption einiger musiktheoretischer Traktate, welche die spätmittelalterliche Musiklehre beeinflusst haben, andererseits ist sie eine Quelle für die böhmischen Traktate der Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini.

Der kleine, von mehreren Händen des 14. Jhs. geschriebene Pergamentcodex (22x16cm, 50 ff.) stammt aus der St. Jacobus-Kirche in Brünn. Seine Entstehung im zentraleuropäischen Raum wird durch die musikalische Notation angezeigt, der Name „Sdislaus“, der in einem Akrostichon am Ende des Verstraktats mit dem Incipit „Mos est nunc iuvenum“ enthalten ist, belegt entschieden eine tschechische Herkunft. Neben Schriften von Iohannes Andreae (1270-1348) und Guilelmus de S. Amore († 1272), sowie dem Pseudo-Seneca De remediis fortuitorum enthält der Codex vier musiktheoretische Texte, von denen drei bisher vollkommen unbekannt sind.

1. fol. 32ra-36vb: Versus de musica alicuius Sdislai.

Inc. „Mos est nunc iuvenum, si quidquam discere querunt“

Expl. „Ex hiis auctoris poteris cognoscere nomen.“

Das Lehrgedicht besteht aus 745 Versen, deren Verfasser sich am Schluß in einem Akrostichon als „Sdislaus“ zu erkennen gibt. Allerdings hat Sdislaus nicht alle Verse selbst verfaßt, sondern greift mehrfach auf frühere Texte zurück. Diese nachweisbaren Zitate und eine erhebliche Anzahl weiterer Verse verbinden es mit der Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini.

Der Stoff des Lehrgedichts beschränkt sich auf Elementar- und Chorallehre: Der erste Teil (bis fol. 34ra) enthält die Aufzählung der Solmisationssilben und Tonbuchstaben, den Aufbau des Tonsystems, die Beschreibung der Guidonischen Hand und der Mutation, die Intervalle, und schließlich Erörterungen zum Gegenstand, zur Erfindung, Wirkung und Einteilung der Musik. Der zweite Teil widmet sich den Kirchen-tonarten: Die Einführung von vier Tonarten und ihre Unterteilung in acht., die Finales, der Ambitus und die Affinales. Sodann folgt eine detaillierte Behandlung der einzelnen Kirchentonarten mit einem Tonar, der unterschiedliche Genres wie Antiphonen, Invitatorium, Responsorien, Introitus, Alleluia, Offertorium und Communio behandelt. Der Tonus peregrinus beschließt diesen Teil.

Von den Quellen, die Sdislaus für sein Lehrgedicht benutzt hat, sind drei besonders zu erwähnen⁴, da sie auch in der Traditio Hollandrini eine besondere Rolle spielen:

fol. 33vb: HERMANN. vers. p. 150 „Ter tria iunctorum sunt intervalla sonorum ...“
(cf. TH VIII 13, 31-39; TH I 1, 9, 4-8 + 11 + 13-15 + 17-18; TH XI 2, 35-37 + 40 + 42; LZ 3, 168-169 + 172-173)

fol. 32rb: VERS. Palmam I 17-28 „Gamaut are bmi semper pollex retinebit ...“
(cf. Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini Band VI, S. 559 ff.)

fol. 32ra: SUMM. GUID. 43-44 „G graves, d finales, a prebet acutas. / E super excellit, quas inchoat aa duplicata.“
(cf. LZ 3, 51-52; TH V 2, 72; ANON. Carthus. nat. 7, 87; mit unterschiedlichem zweiten Vers: TH III 3, 8; TH VII 2, 47; TH VIII 9, 32; TH IX 1, 1, 29; TH X B 59; TH XIII 1, 152; TH XV 6, 12; TH XXIII 1, 2, 42)

fol. 34va: SUMM. GUID. 45 + 47-49 „Claves finales iam constat quatuor esse ...“
(cf. TH VII 4, 72 + 74-76; ANON. Carthus. nat. 6,4; GOB. PERS. p. 189a)

fol. 36vb (Nachtrag) SUMM. GUID. 197-205
(nicht in der Traditio Hollandrini)

Zahlreiche Verse aus Sdislaus' Lehrgedicht sind in der Traditio Hollandrini wiederzufinden, der größte Teil davon ist bisher nur dort belegt. Darunter sind auch zwei Verse, die ausdrücklich dem Johannes Hollandrinus zugeschrieben werden:

fol. 33ra: „Ter ternis modulis cantus contextitur omnis“ (locus Hollandrinus 4A)

fol. 34ra: „Musicus octo tonos ignorans non reputatur.“ (locus Hollandrinus 1C)

Die meisten Konkordanzanzen mit der Hollandrinus-Tradition finden sich in den Traktaten, die nach Böhmen oder Schlesien lokalisiert werden können. Einige Beispiele zeigen diese Verbindungen :

⁴ HERMANN. vers. = Hermannus Contractus, <Versus ad discernendum cantum>, ed. GS 2, S. 149-152; VERS. Palmam = Versus de musica „Palmam cum digitis“, ed. Michael Bernhard / Elżbieta Witkowska-Zaremba in Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini Bd. VI, VMK 24, München 2015, S. 559 ff.; SUMM. Guid. = Summula musicae Guidonis „Dat de psallendi metis pariterque canendi“, ed. Eddie Vetter: Summula - Tractatus metricus de musica glossis commentarioque instructus. DMA A.VIIIa, Buren 1988

- fol. 32ra: Musica sex retinet voces ars appropriatas, Ut sunt la sol fa mi re complens ut tibi sextam (TH VIII, 7, 11-12)
- fol. 32ra: Claves in numero reperimus dena novemque.
Ecce figura manus tenet has et quilibet usus.
(TH VIII 9, 81-82; TH X C 171-172; TH III 1, 3-4)
- fol. 32rb: Ex facili cernes, que clavis linea sistit.
Linea sit prima clavis spaciumque secunda.
(TH I 1, 5, 15-16; LZ 1, 24 glossa; Sz 2, 23-24)
- fol. 32va: Tres voces, sex fracciones sex clavibus aptes, Absolvas tres, da reliquis voces geminatas.
Et totidem mutationes istis sociabis. (TH VII 3, 21-23)
- fol. 34rb: Vult modernorum mos, quod non sufficit omnem
Quatuor ad cantum, propter quid quatuor addunt:
Octavum, sextum, quarto coniunge secundum. (TH VII 4, 37-39, TH XI 3, 32-34)

Offensichtlich ist das Gedicht des Sdislaus eine Fundgrube für die Merkerse der Traditio Hollandrini gewesen. Anhand mehrerer Varianten kann man allerdings feststellen, daß der Brünner Codex wohl nicht die unmittelbare Quelle für die Hollandrinus-Tradition ist.

2. fol. 37ra-37va: Versus de musica Palmam cum digitis (VERS. Palmam I)

Die Brünner Abschrift des Lehrgedichts Palmam cum digitis bildet ein wichtiges Zwischenglied in der Tradierung dieses Gedichts, das bisher nur aus einer einzigen Handschrift aus Heidelberg (Rom, Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana, Pal. Lat. 1346) bekannt war, aus der sich die zahlreichen Zitate in der Traditio Iohannis Hollandrini nicht erklären ließen. Allerdings enthält die Brünner Handschrift etliche Varianten zum Text des Palatina-Codex. Diese sind in den Corrigenda et Addenda in diesem Band aufgelistet.

3. fol. 37vb-45rb : Tractatus de musica plana

Inc.: „Gwido musice artis experientissimus ...“
Expl.: „... per casum transfert ad octavum.“

Der Traktat weist die typische Struktur der Choraltraktate auf: er behandelt das Tonsystem, Solmisationssilben, das Problem von b molle und b durum, Intervalle, Notation und Kirchentönen. Ein umfangreicher Tonar beschließt den Traktat. Mehrere Gemeinsamkeiten mit der Hollandrinus-Tradition sind zu beobachten, deren bedeutendste die Reihe der beispielhaften Responsoriums-Verse ist, die bisher nur aus den Traktaten TH IX, TH II, TH V, TH VII, TH XXIV, LZ und dem Breslauer Tonar (TON. Vratisl.) bekannt war:

fol. 41va: Primus et novissimus; 42ra: Secundum testamentum; 42va: Tres persone sunt in Sancta Trinitate; 43ra: Quatuor libris evangelii; 43va: Quinque libris Moysice legis; 44ra: Sextam etatem mundi; fol. 45va: A septem demoniis; 45rb: Octavus dies resurrectionis.

Ebenfalls aus mehreren Texten der Hollandrinus-Tradition bekannt sind die Merkmelodien zu den Differenzen der Kirchentonarten:

fol. 40vb: Qui singulorum placeat tonorum scire melodiam, hanc accedat formam. Hic carmine brevi studioque levi potest bene scire tonos definire. (Cf. TH XXIV 16, 75; TH XI 4, 53; LZ 4, 76; TH III 8, 41; TH XVII 329 (Sa); TH XIII 4, 217; TH V 4, 107).

fol. 45rb: Si quis tonum primum sciret et secundum, Tercium qui sciret, Quartum diffiniret, Quintum sic mutaret, Sextum variaret, Septimum per casum Transfert ad octavum (cf. TH XXIV 16, 75-78; TH XV 10, 54)

4. fol. 45va-48rb: Tractatus de musica plana.

Inc.: „Quoniam propter non artis usum ...“

Expl.: „De tonis et differenciis debet sequi capitulum.“

Der letzte Traktat der Handschrift ist unvollständig: ein Diagramm, das im Text erwähnt wird, sowie ein Kapitel über die Kirchentonarten fehlen. Der Traktat ist in die folgenden Kapitel unterteilt:

1. ‚Diffinitio‘: Definition der Musik und Beschreibung des Tonsystems von f bis zum e-la.

2. ‚Divisio in partes‘: Einteilung der Musik in ‚musica intensiva - musica extensiva‘ und ‚musica plana - musica mensurata‘. Beschreibung der Hexachordgattungen und der Mutation (einschließlich des Problems des b-fa b-mi).

3. ‚Divisio manus in modos‘: Auflistung von fünfzehn Intervallen, die auf acht innerhalb einer Oktave reduziert werden können.

4. ‚Comparacio modorum ad tempora‘: Die Verwendung der Intervalle in der musikalischen Praxis: sechs wegen ihrer leichten Ausführung häufig verwendete (semitonium, tonus, semiditonus, dytonus, diapente, diapason), sowie weitere selten oder gar nicht verwendete.

5. ‚Comparacio modorum ad ydemptitatem‘: Zusammenklänge und ihre Rolle in der Mehrstimmigkeit. Einklang, Quarte, Quinte und Oktave sind die grundlegenden Intervalle wegen ihrer ‚concordialis ydemptitatas‘ und ‚dulcisona symphonia‘. Ferner wird die Verwandtschaft zwischen den Hexachordgenera durum - naturale und molle - naturale und die Unähnlichkeit von durum und molle behandelt.

6. ‚Practica modorum ad musicalia instrumenta‘ behandelt die Monochordteilung.

Ein einziger Lehrgegenstand verbindet den Traktat mit der Hollandrinus-Tradition. Im ersten Kapitel wird das ee-la mit denselben Argumenten als höchste Tonstufe des Tonsystems (locus Hollandrinus 2C) gerechtfertigt wie im Traktat des Ladislaus de Zalka:

fol. 45va: ... et e-la pro clave ultima numeratur propter tercii jhuri similiter complementum. Et quia ars imitatur naturam in quantum potest, cum sit sequela nature, que non habundat in superfluis nec deficit in necessariis, similiter omnium natura constancium datus est terminus ad maximum et ad minimum, ut patet 2^o de anima.

cf. LZ 1, 24 glossa: ... secundum intencionem Colendrini ultra decem et novem claves usitatos additur ee-la extra manum pro complecione 3ⁱⁱ cantus \natural duralis, quia sicut est in natura, sic debet esse in arte (cf. Anon. Carthus. nat. 2, 5). Sed natura non deficit in necessariis, nec habundat in superfluis, ut vult Philosophus in De celo et mundo (cf. Aristoteles, De anima III, 9 (432b)), ergo nec ars, quia ars ymitatur naturam, in quantum potest etc. Physicorum (cf. Aristoteles, Physica II, 2 (194a)), et ergo, ut 3^{us} cantus \natural duralis sit completus et quilibet alter, necessario ex intencione istorum virorum in hac arte expertorum et precipuorum additur ee-la extra manum.

In dieser kurzen Zusammenfassung konnte nur ein Überblick über den musiktheoretischen Inhalt des Brünner Codex gegeben werden. Die Edition der Texte und eine ausführliche Kommentierung bleiben einer zukünftigen Publikation vorbehalten.
